

2019 Transitional Membership

Individual Membership

Transitional memberships are available to current and former NASPP members who are between jobs or otherwise experiencing a transition in employment. This membership type provides full access to NASPP benefits and services, including job postings, networking, and other professional resources at reduced cost while you navigate this transition and seek to secure new employment. To apply for a transitional membership, please complete and return this form.

Transitional Membership Dues

Individual Transitional Membership $100

Terms and Conditions

All memberships expire on 12/31/19. Transitional members are limited to one consecutive-year renewal at this rate provided employment circumstances have not changed. Independent consultants are not eligible for this rate. Please notify NASPP Member Services upon procurement of new employment to change your membership type.
